Native American Casino Magazine Names Chinook Winds Casino Resort 2008 Sexiest Casino in the Country

LINCOLN CITY, Ore. – Chinook Winds Casino Resort has been named the “Sexiest Casino in the Country” by Native American Casino Magazine. This honor is announced in the May 2008 edition of the magazine. Placing behind Chinook Winds was: Foxwoods Resort Casino in Connecticut, Mystic Lake Casino Hotel in Minnesota, Barona Resort and Casino in California, Fantasy Springs Resort Casino in California and Grand Casino Hinckley in Minnesota.

“We are honored to be mentioned among some of the top Casinos in America. Foxwoods is the largest in the country and Barona is one of the best out there,” said Jim Kikumoto, General Manager of Chinook Winds Casino Resort. The Resort has gone through many renovations over the years to become one of the best Indian Gaming Resorts in the country. The addition of the hotel in 2004 and the golf course in 2005 has made Chinook Winds a property of choice for many travelers.

“This is not just a win for Chinook Winds Casino Resort and the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, but a win for Lincoln City. This award has established Chinook Winds Casino Resort as a true destination resort among the top Tribal Casinos in the Country”, said Kikumoto. Native American Magazine is a nationally distributed publication out of San Diego, California. The magazine covers news from around the continent pertaining to indian gaming, including government and Tribal news
